

Mériscopie Marine Research Station

Marine Mammals : Biology and Research

www.meriscopie.com

Field Courses for Students and the Public

Where? Marine Research Station in Portneuf-sur-Mer, Province Québec, Canada

What?

- 12 days incl. accommodation, food, boat trips, lectures
- Day trips in rigid-hulled inflatable boats (5-8 hours)
- Accommodation in a comfortable house with a view on the St. Lawrence
- Lectures and lab sessions about a variety of topics
- Projects: monitoring, photo ID, ecotoxicology (biopsies), bioacoustics
- Marine mammals: minke, humpback, fin and blue whales, belugas, common porpoise, grey and common seals

When?

- 19.07. - 31.07.2021 (students)
- 16.08. - 28.08.2021 (students)
- 13.09. - 25.09.2021 (public)

Registration:

- Possibility to participate in on-going research projects
- Costs: € 2'210 for students, others € 2'760
- 6 participants per course at most
- Information and reservation: www.meriscopie.com

PLUS:

- We facilitate Bachelor, Master and PhD projects in collaboration with several universities (Canada, USA, EU, CH).
- Boats and captains are certified by Transport Canada.
- Permits for our research programs are delivered by Fisheries and Oceans Canada and Parks Canada.

